

HAPPY TRAILS RV CLUB MEETING OF DECEMBER 6, 2012

Executive Committee members present: Joel Salzman, Bill Trice, Jeri Desmond, substitute Pat Birdsell

Meeting was called to order by President Joel Salzman at 5:50 p.m. After appetizer potluck and presentation by Camping World Ambassadors.

Joel asked visitors to introduce themselves. One visitor was present. Three new member names were announced: Wilson, Sutton, and Hall, for a total of 28 paid rigs.

Joel announced resignation of Donna Roberts as Trip Director, and Donna said a few words to the group. Betty Bernat has graciously volunteered to take over as Trip Director.

Minutes were read by Pat Birdsell because they were not published on the website in time. Motion to approve by Glenn Brower, seconded by Larry Birdsell, was passed.

Treasurers report was highlighted by Jeri Desmond: beginning balance of $2191.57, income of $3010, expenses of $114.94, resulted in an ending balance of $5086.63. Motion to approve by Glenn Brower, seconded by Larry Birdsell, was passed.

Joel encouraged more members, friends and visitors to purchase tickets for the RV Club Christmas Dinner Dance on Dec. 13. We need 100 attendees to cover all expenses.

The Nosey Coyote article, written by Betty Bernat, was in the last edition. Appreciation was shown to Betty.

RV Club Flyer is now in Activities, newly composed by Cathy O'Brien, formatted by Pat Birdsell, with graphics by Sam Giamarvo.

Rallies for this season were discussed. See Nov. 8 minutes and flyers for details and dates.

- Best of East Valley Rally: Donna and Joel, Wagon Masters. Several fun activities were listed, including a new idea of bumper bowling. Deposit of $90 due tonight.
- San Diego: Elana and Roger Augustine (new members who lived in the SD area for 30 years), Wagon Master Elana enthusiastically mentioned some of the many options for activities and the park location of Santee Lakes. She mentioned the dates might be changed slightly. Deposit of $300 due tonight.
- Rocky Point: Ed and Linda Heckman, Wagon Masters Ed assured the group of how safe the drive is and the Puerto Penasco area.
- Las Vegas: Wagon Masters needed, end of April on the way out for the season

Move to adjourn by Glenn Brower.
