ARRIVING APRIL 2 AND DEPARTING APRIL 5, 2012

“Lake Pleasant In Spring” What a perfect time to enjoy the desert and it is so close to home!

A rally is being planned starting April 2, 2012. There will be 3 nights camping, a boat ride, plenty of hiking/walking trails, plus time to just relax after a busy winter season. This will be a good time to check out the rig for any little "bugs", that developed during the winter, before starting your summer travels.
