

Hubbell Trading Post Nat'l Historic Site	Ganado	AZ	928-755-3475	www.nps.gov/hutr/	The oldest continuously operating trading post on the Navajo Nation is still active today. John Lorenzo Hubbell purchased it in 1878, ten years after Navajos returned to their homeland from their exile at Bosque Redondo in New Mexico.	13
Grand Canyon South Rim Nat'l Park	Grand Canyon	AZ	928-638-7888	www.nps.gov/grca/	More than a great chasm carved over millennia through the rocks of the Colorado Plateau, more than an awe-inspiring view or an adventure for those who explore the roads, hike the trails, or float the currents of the turbulent Colorado River. This canyon transcends human experience, providing solace from our hectic lives.	14
Sunset Crater Volcano Nat'l Monument	Flagstaff	AZ	928-526-0502	www.nps.gov/sucr/	More than 900 years ago, the youngest volcano on the Colorado plateau buried this area under slow moving, molten lava. The volcano's red rim and the dark lava flows seem to have cooled and hardened to a jagged surface only yesterday.	14
Walnut Canyon Nat'l Monument	Flagstaff	AZ	928-526-3367	www.nps.gov/waca/	More than 900 years ago, the youngest volcano on the Colorado plateau buried this area under slow moving, molten lava. The volcano's red rim and the dark lava flows seem to have cooled and hardened to a jagged surface only yesterday.	14
Wupatki Nat'l Monument	Flagstaff	AZ	928-679-2365	www.nps.gov/wupa/	Wupatki was the largest, and perhaps the most influential Pueblo in this area less than 800 years ago. Home to 85-100 people, with several thousand more living within a day's walk, this pueblo was built in one of the lowest and driest places on the Colorado Plateau.	14
