President Conrad Revenig welcomed members and new members. Meeting called to order.

Minutes of the January 6, 2022 meeting were available for review and also posted on the website. They were approved.

The treasurer's report for January was approved and it will be posted in the password-protected section of the website.

Old Business

Thank You's: Vern Alvis for his work on the website and also for his presentation tonight.

Coordinator Vacancies: We still need volunteers for Meet-Up and Program Speaker coordinators.

Wagon Master Duties: Conrad reviewed the revised and simplified Wagon Master Guidelines.

New Club Email Account: Please use the club account (noted above) when contacting club board members. Vern will change the board members' email links to the club email address on the website.

New Business

Speaker for March 3rd Meeting: We still need a speaker for the next meeting. If you have any suggestions, please contact Conrad or another board member ASAP.

Membership Numbers: We currently have 89 members (36 have not yet paid).

Officer Elections: President, Secretary & Trip Director positions will be nominated and voted on during the March meeting.

Rallies

Cottonwood: Cindy Kent is Wagon Master. 34 are attending. The State Park is full, but please let Cindy know if interested in being on a back-up list. Attendees Escape Room & Blazing M Ranch Dinner Show.

FMCA: Rich Hofer distributed a schedule for the FMCA rally March 22-27. Will have several socials/meals. Seven rigs are signed up to attend the full event; day passes are also available for anyone wanting to just attend for the day.

Lone Pine: Sign-ups are available for October 2022 rally to Lone Pine for the Western Film Festival.

Kartchner Caverns: Issie Nielsen is coordinating a rally to Kartchner Caverns in February 22-26, 2023. Reservations will need to be made a year in advance as state parks fill up quickly.

Possible Future Rallies: December 2022: Acker Night in Prescott on December 9, Tubac luminaries, Catalina State Park near Tucson, Lake Havasu or Yuma for the Field to Feast Tour and Big Boom. January 2023: Quartzsite or balloon fest in Lake Havasu.

Meet-Ups

Theatre West: The recent Theatre West meet-up was a success: 41 attended and about 30 met at a restaurant afterwards. There will be another presentation at this theatre running March 15-27 if anyone is interested in attending.

Luke Air Force Airshow: John Lesh gave detailed information about the four categories of VIP tickets available for the airshow March 19-20. Prices range from $42 to $225/per person.

Possible Future Meet-Ups: Mel Hinterlong reported on his search for factory/warehouse tours. Most are not currently conducting tours and a couple have not responded to inquiries. John Lesh indicated that the United States Army Field Band will be doing a free concert at Beardsley Park in Sun City West on Wednesday, February 23 from 3-5 p.m. Be sure to bring chair and head shade protection.

Announcements/Additional Discussion

Happy Hours: February 23rd & March 23rd happy hours will be held in the Chuckwagon back room. Please remember to use the back door to enter. Gary Stevens asked if the Chuckwagon might be open for dinners on those dates. Conrad will follow up to confirm room availability for the happy hours.

Meeting Adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Lora Newby
